September 2, 1994
10th International Congress on Circumpolar Health

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

10th International Congress on Circumpolar Health (10th ICCH)

May 19-24, 1996
Anchorage, Alaska, USA

Convened by the International Union for Circumpolar Health

Host: American Society For Circumpolar Health

This Conference is intended for all with an interest in health in the arctic. Information on submission of abstracts will be available in September 1995. The 10th ICCH will include presentation of scientific papers, workshops, and poster presentations. A special program will be developed by, and focus on concerns of, arctic indigenous people. Social events, and pre- and post-conference tours will be offered. Social, educational, and sightseeing programs are planned for accompanying persons who may wish an alternative to the scientific sessions.

___ Yes, I am interested in receiving more information. Please add my name to the 10th ICCH mailing list.
